~ ~

Number One, Summer 1970

Courthouses of Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 5

Colonel John Custis of Arlington ..... E. T. Crowson 15

Having quarreled for years with his wife, this Virginia statesman had the last word inscribed on his tombstone.

A Virginia Sculptor ..... L. Moody Simms, Jr. 20

Following the Civil War Edward Virginius Valentine preserved in marble the great Confederate heroes.

Jubal Early's Last Stand ..... V. Dennis Golladay 28

Although many military commanders have lost battles and campaigns, Early is one of the very few who witnessed the total annihilation of his army.

The Colonial Cabinetmaker in Tidewater Virginia ..... William Edward Dunstan III 34

Number Two, Autumn 1970

Forts in Colonial Virginia ..... Howard A. MacCord, Sr. 5

During the third quarter of the eighteenth century, George Washington supervised construction of over twenty forts in the Old Dominion.

Rosewell, an Unfulfilled Dream ..... William Edward Dunstan III 12

Today vandals—and perhaps ghosts—roam the grounds of this eighteenth-century estate.

Sully, the Home of Richard Bland Lee ..... Eleanor Lee Templeman and Ludwell Lee Montague 26

This house was saved from destruction by an act of Congress.

George Hancock ..... Raymond P. Barnes 34

This Southwest Virginian is remembered more by the multitude of rumors about his burial site than by his services to the Commonwealth.

Courthouses of Prince Edward and Nottoway Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 40

Number Three, Winter 1971

Rockbridge County's Boom Hotels ..... Royster Lyle, Jr. 5

William H. Richardson, Friend of the Farmer ..... Charles W. Turner 15

Courthouses of Lunenburg and Mecklenburg Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 22

Taverns of varying degrees of excellence influenced the location of two Southside county seats.

"We Have Only to Lament Being Concerned in This Business . . ." ..... E. M. Sanchez-Saavedra 34

A disagreement between the Virginia and North Carolina boundary commissioners triggered eighty years of dispute.

Archibald Henderson, Marine ..... Ralph W. Donnelly 39

His long tenure as commandant gave a name to an era.

Number Four, Spring 1971

Courthouses of Halifax and Pittsylvania Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 5

Conrad Wise Chapman, a Virginia Expatriate Painter ..... L. Moody Simms, Jr. 13
